

I support the current NO Call law. Changes in this law are not needed and would not be for the benefit of the consumer and/or family.